

"By no means," exclaimed Hamilton, in his clear, thrilling, silvery voice. "It is not the bare printing and publishing of a paper that will make it a libel: the words themselves must be libelous, that is, false, scandalous, and seditious, else my client is not guilty." Page 559

(Note: "It is not the bare printing..." In this context bare means simple or mere.)

Examine the source above and answer the following questions:

1. What is this? Where do you think it came from? When do you think it was made? (Explain your answers.)

2. What is happening in the image?

3. Do you think this is an unbiased representation? Why or why not?

4. The source has been preserved by the United States Library of Congress. What do you think is important about this source?