6. Interests - List some of your interests (i.e. sports, coding, photography, poetry, arts, etc.):

- 7. Letters of Recommendation - Two letters of recommendation are required. Letters should be from a teacher, school counselor, principal, or other school administrator (must be on official school letterhead). Recommendations from friends or family members will not be accepted. The letters should describe why you are qualified to participate in the Expanding Horizons Institute program. Recommenders can email letter as attachment to sean-michael@crf-usa.org.
- 8. Getting to Know You – Respond to ONE of the following questions. Must be typed and a minimum of one page. Enclose your respond with application.
- Some students have a background, identity, interest, or talent that is so meaningful they believe their application would be incomplete without it. If this sounds like you, then please share your story.
 - The lessons we take from obstacles we encounter can be fundamental to later success. Recount a time when you faced a challenge, setback, or failure. How did it affect you, and what did you learn from the experience?
 - Reflect on a time when you questioned or challenged a belief or idea. What prompted your thinking? What was the outcome?
 - Describe a problem you've solved or a problem you'd like to solve. It can be an intellectual challenge, a research query, an ethical dilemma - anything that is of personal importance, no matter the scale. Explain its significance to you and what steps you took or could be taken to identify a solution.
 - Describe a topic, idea, or concept you find so engaging that it makes you lose all track of time. Why does it captivate you? What or who do you turn to when you want to learn more?
- 9. Unofficial Transcripts – Submit a copy of your unofficial transcript with the application. You can request it from your school counselor, but it may take a few days for you to receive it.
- 10. Student Signature – Read statement below and sign.

I certify that all the information provided is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
